

In the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh

C.W.P. No. 18393 of 2015

Date of Decision: September 02, 2015

The Gehal Multipurpose Cooperative Agricultural Society Ltd. & Ors.

... Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and others

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PARAMJEET SINGH

Present: Mr. M.S. Bedi, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Paramjeet Singh, J. (Oral)

In the instant writ petition, petitioners have impugned order dated 12.06.2015 (Annexure P/12) passed by respondent no.2 – Registrar, Cooperative Societies, Punjab, whereby bye-laws have been ordered to be amended under Section 10-A of the Punjab Cooperative Societies Act, 1961 (hereinafter referred to as the “Act”).

It is not possible to establish a separate bank for District Barnala in view of the fact that separate District Central Cooperative Societies have not been created for Barnala. The amendment in the Bye-laws has been made under Section 10-A of the Act whereby if the co-operative society is necessary or desirable in the interest of such a society or of the co-operative movement, then bye-laws can be amended in conformity with any provisions of the Act or Rules made thereunder. Exercising the powers under those provisions, impugned order has been passed by the Registrar, Cooperative Societies, Punjab.

In view of above, this Court is not inclined to interfere in the impugned order. At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioners states that he may be permitted to withdraw the instant writ petition with liberty to avail other remedy available to the petitioners in accordance with law.

Dismissed as withdrawn with the aforesaid liberty.
