Counsel for the respondent, on the basis of the affidavit dated 04.03.2015 filed by the Principal, Government Industrial Training Institute, rendered infructuous as one seat of electrical trade, which fell vacant on 13th September, 2014 has been granted to the petitioner and he has been adjusted against the said seat. It is further stated that the petitioner is attending classes and has even appeared in the 1st semester examination.

Counsel for the State further on instruction from Shri Devinder Kumar, Principal Junior Scale, Government I.T.I., Patiala, states that because of the absence of the petitioner, there will be no impediment with regard to granting him the internal assessment, which apprehension of the petitioner is misplaced.

In view of the above, the present writ petition is disposed of as infructuous.
