MAHESH GROVER, J.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that he has no instructions as the petitioner has taken away the brief from him. If that is so, then in view of the non-representation of the petitioner the instant petition necessarily has to be dismissed for want of prosecution.

Learned counsel for the State with vehemence has pointed out to the antecedents of the petitioner to contend that he is involved in two FIRs and in one case he has been declared as a proclaimed offender. Strangely, Mr. Maini states that the brief was taken away by the petitioner yesterday in the evening. If that is so, then the petitioner evidently is making a mockery of law as he is evading the process and roaming freely.

The petition is dismissed for want of prosecution with costs of Rs.50,000/- which shall be recovered from the petitioner as he has wasted the time of the court unnecessarily and deposited with the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court.

The Senior Superintendent of Police, Jalandhar is directed to arrest the petitioner forthwith, as the petitioner is a proclaimed offender and his pre-arrest bail has also been dismissed, and submit him to the process of law. This shall be done within two weeks from today.

The Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jalandhar shall ensure the recovery of costs from the petitioner and shall deposit the same with the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court.
