Mahesh Grover, J. (Oral)

By virtue of the interim order dated 17.01.2013 passed by this Court, the result of the petitioners was not to be declared without permission of the Court. The order also clarified that interim directions would not confer any equitable right in favour of the petitioners.

Learned counsel for the petitioners prays that the result of the petitioners be declared.

Let the result be communicated to the petitioners.

In view of the fact that the petitioners have been permitted to participate in the STET and their result will be communicated to them, the grievance of the petitioners stands redressed and the present writ petition is disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.
