S.J. VAZIFDAR, A.C.J. (ORAL)

The petitioners seek to enter into a settlement with the respondents for the allotment of alternative plots on the same terms as those entered into by persons who the petitioners claim are similarly situated which are annexed at Annexure P-3.

2. The petitioners are always at liberty to apply to seek a settlement regarding their application for alternative plots with the respondents. It is for the respondents and the petitioners to consider whether the settlement ought to be entered into or not. Whether the petitioners are entitled to relief(s) similar to those contained in Annexure P-3 is a different matter altogether.

3. The writ petition is accordingly disposed of.
