S.J. VAZIFDAR, A.C.J. (ORAL)

The petitioner's appeal is pending. There is no warrant, therefore, for interfering at this stage. The petitioner merely seeks an order expediting the hearing of the appeal. The petitioner has also made an application for expedition before the Appellate Authority.

2. It is for the Appellate Authority whether or not to expedite the hearing of the appeal. The Appellate Authority shall not adjourn the matter when it reaches. The application, if any, for interim relief(s) shall also be made before the Appellate Authority.

3. The writ petition is accordingly disposed of.
