SURYA KANT, J. [ORAL]

The petitioner's case is that while passing the eviction orders under Section 7 of the Punjab Village Common Lands [Regulation] Act, 1961, the authorities had imposed penalty on the private respondents vide orders dated 10.08.2005 and 14.11.2006. The petitioner alleges that though the above-stated orders have attained finality, the amount of penalty is yet to be recovered by the Gram Panchayat from the private respondents. He is said to have raised this issue vide representation dated 09.06.2014[P-4].

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner but without expressing any views on merits, more so when we have not heard the Gram Panchayat or private respondents at this stage, this writ petition is disposed of with a direction to respondents No. 3 to 5 to verify the petitioner's allegations and take appropriate action, as may be required, within a period of four months from the date a certified copy of this order is received.
