Counsel for the respondent-University points out that in pursuance of the interim order dated 07.10.2015 passed by this Court, the petitioner has not attended the classes provisionally. The exams have started thereafter and 4 exams have already been concluded and one exam is left. The petition has also been filed on the basis of shortage of lectures for which explanation had been given.

Counsel for the petitioner does not have instructions also regarding the fact that whether the petitioner has attended the classes for the last two months.

In such circumstances, the present petition is dismissed.

Interim order dated 07.10.2015 also stands vacated.
