

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Civil Writ Petition No.22251 of 2015

Date of decision: 16.10.2015

Rajpal

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE G.S.SANDHAWALIA

Present: Mr. Sandeep Parkash Chahar, Advocate for the petitioner

G.S.SANDHAWALIA, J. (Oral)

The petitioner seeks the benefit of regularization of his services in view of the policies issued by the State of Haryana in the years 1993, 1996 and 2003.

It is the case of the petitioner that he was appointed as Beldar on 1.10.1982 with respondent no.3. On account of retrenchment on 1.10.1994, he had raised an industrial dispute and vide award dated 30.6.2002(Annexure P/1) the petitioner was reinstated with continuity of service and 50% of the back wages from the date of demand notice dated 25.10.1994. In pursuance of the award dated 30.6.2002, the petitioner joined his duty on 1.10.2002 and the writ petition of the State against the said award was dismissed by this Court. The petitioner's case for regularization was also recommended on 27.1.2005 (Annexure P/7) by respondent no.3. However, in spite of almost 10 years having expired, respondent no.2 has not acted upon on the said recommendations.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that he would be satisfied if the legal notice dated 16.10.2014 (Annexure P/9) which had already been served upon the respondents no.2, is decided within a time-bound period.

Without commenting upon the merits of the case and without calling upon the respondents, keeping in view the limited relief sought, the present writ petition is disposed of, with a direction to respondent no.2 to take into consideration the legal notice dated 16.10.2014 (Annexure P/9) and take appropriate decision, within a period of three months, from the receipt of a certified copy of this order. Needless to say that if the relief is to be denied, reasons are to follow.
