SATISH KUMAR MITTAL, J. (Oral)

On earlier occasion, the petitioners had filed a petition (CWP No. 17755 of 2014) challenging the notification dated 23.05.2014, which has been again impugned in this petition. The said petition was disposed of by a Division Bench of this Court vide order dated 29.08.2014, which reads as under :-

“After arguing the case for some time, learned counsel for the petitioners seeks and is permitted to withdraw this writ petition with a view to obtain relevant information under Right to Information Act, 2005 and thereafter to approach the Court, if need be.”

Without obtaining the aforesaid relevant information, the petitioners have filed the instant petition.

After hearing learned counsel for the petitioners, in view of the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in State of Punjab versus Tehal Singh and others, (2002) 2 Supreme Court Cases 7, wherein it has been held that inclusion of certain area in a Nagar Panchayat is a legislative function and in that eventuality, before issuing such notification, no hearing is required, we are not inclined to entertain this petition. Even otherwise, elections to the Nagar Panchayats in the State of Punjab are scheduled to be held in the last week of February, 2015.

Dismissed.
