CM-4600-CWP-2015

Notice in the CM.

At the asking of the Court, Ms. Harismrat Rai, DAG, Punjab, accepts notice on behalf of the State.

The present application is for preponement of hearing in the main case. The learned counsel contends that in compliance of the order dated 01.09.2014, the petitioner has completed all the formalities regarding completion of pension papers etc., on 13.10.2014. However, the respondents have failed to grant the pension/pensionary benefits to the petitioner. Keeping in view the above, the present application is allowed. The hearing of the main petition is preponed for today.

CWP-5278 of 2012

By way of the instant writ petition, under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner seeks directions to the respondents to release the pension and other retiral benefits as per her qualifying service and further to release the arrears of pension along with interest @ 18% per annum.

Keeping in view the fact that the petitioner has completed the necessary formalities pertaining to the pension papers etc., in the circumstances, without advertng to the merits of the case, the present petition is disposed of with a direction to the competent authority, to treat the present petition as a representation and decide the same, by passing a speaking order, within a period of four months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order.
