Instant writ petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for setting aside the order dated 18.03.2013 (Annexure P-1) whereby interest has been allowed from the date of demand i.e. 10.02.2012 instead of August, 2004.

The demand was raised by the petitioner for the first time on 10.02.2012. The Zonal Dispute Settlement Committee allowed refund of excess amount with interest from the date of demand but in appeal the Forum for Redressal of Grievances of Consumers, Patiala modified the order to the extent that excess amount will be adjusted in future but interest on the refundable amount will be payable w.e.f 09.02.2012 i.e. date of demand.

After arguing for some time, learned counsel for the petitioner wants to withdraw the instant petition with liberty to approach the authorities concerned in accordance with law for redressal of his grievance.

The prayer of the petitioner apparently appears to be misconceived as he has sought the setting aside the order whereby interest has been awarded to him from the date of demand.

Dismissed as withdrawn with aforesaid liberty.
