K.Kannan, J. (Oral)

1. The counsel for the State states, on instructions, from Mr. Sunil Kumar, Assistant, office of the Director General, Food and Supplies Department Haryana, Chandigarh that before a decision to cancel of licence for a depot, no notice had been issued to show cause against such cancellation. The rules of natural justice would dictate such a course and if it is breached, the order will be vitiated. The impugned order is quashed on this short ground. The petitioner may treat the order passed by this court as enabling the petitioner to file his objections against the cancellation and submit the same within two weeks from the date of receipt of copy of this order. If such an objection is not filed, the State will be entitled to take a decision on the basis of records. If an objection is given within the time stipulated, the respondent will take appropriate decision after joining the petitioner in such form of enquiry as the law contemplates.

2. The impugned order is quashed and the writ petition is disposed of on above terms.
