Issue notice of motion.

2. Respondent waive service as Mr. Rahul Dev Singh learned D.A.G., Haryana accepts notice on behalf of all the respondents.

3. The petitioner has challenged the notices dated 4.9.2015 calling upon it to show cause as to why a penalty of about Rs.7.52 crores be not imposed upon it. There is no warrant for interfering with the show cause notice, at this stage. There is nothing on record to indicate that the petitioner has not been afforded an opportunity of answering the show cause notice. In the reply the petitioner has stated that it has not been provided with the documents. Petitioner must, in the first instance, at least ask for the documents.

4. The writ petition is, therefore, disposed of by the following order:-

(i) The petitioner shall be at liberty to seek particulars from the respondents within one week from today. Whether the particulars ought to be furnished or not is for the authorities to decide in the first instance.

(ii) The petitioner would obviously be afforded an opportunity of a hearing before any order is passed on the show cause notice.

Disposed of.
