The petitioner had impugned the order dated 17.05.2012 (Annexure P-5) passed pursuant to the provisions of Section 3 of the Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006 for declaring the marriage between the parties as null and void.

The petition was initiated under Section 7 and the Family Court granted interim maintenance of Rs.5,000/- per month to the respondent as also Rs.11,000/- as litigation expenses. This order was passed as interim measure during the course of pendency of the main proceedings which has also since culminated in an order dated 30.03.2015 against which the petitioner has preferred an appeal which is pending for 19.11.2015.

Be that as it may, then I am of the opinion that the writ petition has been rendered infructuous and the same is disposed of as such leaving the petitioner with liberty to raise all the pleas that he has raised here before the Appellate Court.
