HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA

Present: Mr. Karan Padam, Advocate for the petitioners.

S.J. VAZIFDAR, ACTING CHIEF JUSTICE.

Petitioners claim to be entitled to the allotment of flats under a Notification dated 08.07.2015 (Annexure P-1). Although they allege having made an application under the said notification, the application has not been produced.

2. There are 55 petitioners in this petition. The case of each of the petitioners would be different.

3. It is difficult in a writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India to consider such matters which would invariably involve disputed questions of fact.

4. Petitioners must therefore in the first instance make applications to the authorities concerned for the allotment of flats. If they do so, the authorities shall decide the same in accordance with law.

The writ petition is, accordingly, disposed of.
