

In the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh.

CWP No. 26481 of 2015
Decided on 19.12.2015

Raminderbir Kaur

--Petitioner

Vs.

Union of India and others

--Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR JAIN

Present: Mr.Anish Garg, Advocate, for the petitioner

Rakesh Kumar Jain,J: (Oral)

This petition is filed for correction in the entry in the column of ownership in the jamabandi for the year 2014-15 in which according to the petitioner, name of the owner has been wrongly mentioned.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and am of the considered opinion that change in the column of ownership in the jamabandi cannot be effected by way of filing a writ petition as there is a procedure established by law under Section 45 of the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887 (for short,'the Act) that in case of change in the jamabandi, a civil suit has to be filed.

In view of the above, this petition is not maintainable and the petitioner is left to avail her other remedy in accordance with law.

Disposed of.

17.12.2015

rr

(Rakesh Kumar Jain)
Judge