The petitioner has approached this Court seeking a writ in the nature of certiorari for quashing the impugned order dated 09.02.2015, which now stands withdrawn.

The petitioner is continuing in service on a condition that in the event of availability of regular hands, the services of the petitioner can be dispensed with.

This arrangement is to the satisfaction of the petitioner who prays that the present petition may be disposed of as having being rendered infructuous and the same is disposed of as such.
