Petitioners filed instant writ petition with the grievance that despite having a valid decree(P-2), Revenue Authorities were not effecting the mutation of ownership on the basis of such title.

Upon notice, respondents filed written statement stating that decree being of joint possession, entry of mutation of ownership in terms of the findings in the judgment and decree could not be entered. The stand of the respondents in the said reply was considered to be absolutely arbitrary and contemptuous and hence Deputy Commissioner,Sirsa was directed to be present in Court.
