

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Civil Writ Petition No.5126 of 2014

Date of decision: 24.4.2015

Arshpreet Kaur

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and others

...Respondents

CORAM: MR.JUSTICE G.S.SANDHAWALIA

Present: Mr. Mohit Jaggi, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Manish Dadwal, Advocate for respondent no.2.

G.S.SANDHAWALIA, J, (Oral)

On 9.1.2015, the following order was passed:-

“Counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is not interested in continuing with the present course and wants to file CM application, praying for the relief of getting a NOC from respondent no.3.

Adjourned to 12.2.2015.”

A period of more than three months has expired but no such application has been filed. Since the petitioner does not want a decision on merits as per statement given earlier by her counsel, the present writ petition is dismissed as not pressed with liberty to file representation before the respondents for the necessary relief. Needless to say a decision on the same will be taken expeditiously.

April 24, 2015
Pka

(G.S.SANDHAWALIA)
Judge