

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

F.A.O. No.6902 of 2011 (O&M)

Date of Decision: 11.02.2015

Reliance General Insu. Co. Ltd.

....Appellant

v.

Rita Devi and others

....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NAVITA SINGH

Present: Mr. Arun Sharma, Advocate for Mr. T.K. Joshi, Advocate for the appellant.

Navita Singh, J.

Respondent No.3 is already ex parte. Notice to respondents No.1 and 2 could not be issued as correct address was not filed.

The address was to be filed by the appellant in compliance with order dated 7.11.2012, vide which order time of two weeks was granted to do the needful. Thereafter, on 15.3.2013, no one appeared for the appellant and compliance was not made. Vide order dated 17.9.2013 again period of four weeks was granted to file the correct address for notice to be issued for 24.3.2014. On the said date, no one was present and compliance was also not made. Yet again, adjournment was granted in the absence of the appellant with a stipulation to file correct address, not dismissing the appeal for default. However, on the next date, i.e. 15.9.2014, proxy counsel for the appellant appeared and again sought adjournment. Needful was ordered to be done within two weeks and the matter was posted for today. Today again, last opportunity is being requested for and it is not understandable as to with what face the appellant can make that request. The order was not complied with consistently since 7.11.2012, making a mockery of the orders of the Court.

For repeated non-compliance, the appeal is dismissed.
