AJAY KUMAR MITTAL, J. (Oral)

The petitioner has approached this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, for issuance of a writ in the nature of Certiorari, for quashing the impugned order dated 29th November, 2013 (Annexure P-8), passed by the respondent – Chandigarh Housing Board, rejecting the transfer of Dwelling Unit No. 717, Sector 41-A, Chandigarh, in the name of the petitioner.

2. Upon notice of motion having been issued, Mr. Vishal Sodhi, Advocate, appears on behalf of the respondent and has produced an office order dated 07th April, 2015, whereby, a policy decision has been taken in pursuance to the decision of this Court in CWP No.27322 of 2013, titled as 'Kuldip Chand Pathania Vs. Chandigarh Housing Board and others', decided on 13th January, 2015, wherein, a direction for transferring the plot after the expiry of lock-in period had been issued. It has been recorded that transfer of the plot after lock-in period shall not be objected to on the ground that the documents for transfer were executed during lock-in period mentioned in the allotment letter. The lock-in period shall be in terms of the transfer policy. The office order dated 07th April, 2015, is thus:-

*“In continuation of office order No. HB/AOI/SO(VII)-
2012/2684 dated 29.02.2012 and in pursuance of Hon'ble High
Court of Punjab and Haryana, at Chandigarh, decision dated*

13.01.2015, passed in CWP No.27322 of 2013, titled as “Kuldip Chand Pathania Vs. Chandigarh Housing Board and others”, a reference was made to the Sr. Standing Counsel, Chandigarh Housing Board for soliciting legal opinion in connection with this decision. The Sr. Standing Counsel, CHB has opined that the Judgement does not confer any right during the lock-in period. As such any transfer that takes place will be 'in presenti'. As long as there are no financial implications to the detriment of CHB, transfers may go ahead.

Therefore, it is hereby directed that all cases of GPA transactions, where GPA/SPA & Agreement to Sell/Will were executed on or before 11.10.2011, are permissible, whether the documents were executed within the lock-in period or beyond it. However, the transfer will be done only after the expiry of lock-in period and must be covered under the original GPA Transfer Policy framed by the Board vide its Agenda Item No. 270.5.1 in its 270th meeting.”

3. The photocopy of the office order dated 07th April, 2015, issued by the Chandigarh Housing Board is taken on record.
