Versus

State of Haryana and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr.H.S.Sullar, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Manoj Kumar Sangwan, DAG, Haryana.

Mr. Shakti Kaushik, Advocate for respondents No. 2 and 3.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Feeling aggrieved against the alleged inaction on the part of respondent authorities, petitioners have approached this Court by way of instant writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, seeking a writ in the nature of mandamus.

It is undisputed between the parties that when no appropriate order was passed on numerous representations nor any such intimation was sent to them about the decision on their representation(s), petitioners served a legal notice to the respondent authorities vide Annexure P-5

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that on the one hand, genuine grievance of the petitioners has not been readdressed considering them for promotion against the posts lying vacant and on the other hand, the respondents are engaging the persons on the said posts through service providers.

Be that as it may, Commissioner, Nagar Nigam, Ambala-respondent No.2 is directed to look into the matter, consider the grievance of the petitioners, which prima facie seems to be genuine and decide their legal notice (Annexure P-5) at an early date by passing an appropriate order thereon, strictly in accordance with law but in any case within a period of two months from today.

With the above-said observations made and directions issued, instant writ petition stands disposed of.
