K.Kannan, J. (Oral)

1. The petition is premature. The petition is filed by mother-in-law against the petitioner and her children. The petitioner will state her objection about the non-maintainability of the petition before the forum and will not have a relief through a writ petition that the petition is not maintainable. It is a judicial forum which can undertake an exercise of consideration of maintainability if such an objection is taken and that need not be fast tracked through a judicial intervention under Article 226 of the Constitution.

2. The writ petition is disposed of with liberty to take all the objections before the forum and the same will be considered in accordance with law.
