PARAMJEET SINGH, J. (ORAL)

Instant writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India has been filed for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the respondent-authority to release electricity connection to the petitioner without any further delay.

In pursuance of notice of motion, respondents have filed written statement, same is taken on record. It is averred in the reply that cause of the petitioner is pre-mature as he has never approached the respondents for electricity connection nor has filled up requisite forms. Therefore, present writ petition is liable to be dismissed.

In view of the reply filed by respondent, writ petition is liable to be dismissed. However, since similarly situated persons have been
