CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE DAYA CHAUDHARY

1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

Present: Mr. B.K. Bagri, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. P.S Poonia, Advocate for the respondents.

DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (Oral)

The present petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents to count the work-charge service followed by regular service till the retirement of the petitioner and to revise his pension and to release the arrears of pension and gratuity along with interest @18% p.a. from the date of his retirement till payment.

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that the necessary relief has been granted to the petitioner where as learned counsel for the petitioner submits that interest on delayed payment has not been paid to the petitioner.

In view of submission made by learned counsel for the respondents, the present petition has become infructuous.

Dismissed as having become infructuous.

However, in case, the petitioner is still aggrieved in any manner, he is at liberty to move a representation to the respondents to pay interest on delayed payment. The respondents are also directed to consider the representation of the petitioner in accordance with law as expeditiously as possible.
