CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

for the petitioners.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK J. (ORAL)

Feeling aggrieved against the alleged inaction on the part of respondent authorities, petitioners have approached this Court, by way of instant writ petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, seeking a writ in the nature of Mandamus.

Learned counsel for the petitioners, at the very outset, fairly states that although the petitioners have submitted representation dated 7.6.2012 (Annexure P-16) which is pending consideration, yet he seeks permission of the Court to approach respondent No.2 by moving a fresh and comprehensive representation and respondent No.2 may be directed to consider and decide the same, within a reasonable time.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, the Director General of Prisons, Haryana-respondent No.2 is directed that if the petitioners approach him by moving an appropriate representation within a period of four weeks from today, he shall consider and decide the same, at an early date by passing an appropriate order thereon, strictly in accordance with law, but in any case within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a representation from the petitioners.

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, the present petition stands disposed of.
