.....Petitioner

versus

Food Corporation of India and others

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPAK SIBAL

Present: Mr. Surinder Sharma, Advocate for the petitioner.

DEEPAK SIBAL, J.

The only prayer made in the present petition is for the issuance of a direction to respondent No.1 to decide the review petition dated 17.09.2013 (Annexure P-6) filed by the petitioner under Regulation 74 of the Food Corporation of India (Staff) Regulations, 1971 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Regulations').

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the above said review petition was filed way back in September 2013 and even after passage of over one and a half years, the same has not been decided.

Statutory remedies availed by parties should be decided expeditiously. It is unfortunate that the review petition filed by the petitioner under Regulation 74 of the Regulations has not been decided even after the passage of over one and a half years.

Without commenting on the merits of the case, the writ petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.1 to decide the review petition dated 17.09.2013 (Annexure P-6) filed by the petitioner way back in September 2013, if not already decided, by passing a speaking order and after affording opportunity of hearing to the petitioner, preferably within three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order.

The petitioner is directed to serve a copy of the writ petition along with a certified copy of this order upon the respondents.

Needless to add that the decision so taken be communicated to the petitioner and if the decision is not to the satisfaction of the petitioner, he would be at liberty to challenge the same, in accordance with law.
