SATISH KUMAR MITTAL, J. (Oral)

The petitioner, who claims himself to be the resident of village Berli Kalan, Tehsil and District Rewari, has filed the instant writ petition for issuing directions to respondents No.2 and 3 to cancel the licence of brick kiln granted to respondent No.5, which, according to the petitioner, has been granted in contravention of Haryana Control of Brick Supplies Order, 1972 and the East Punjab Control of Bricks Supplies Act, 1949.

It is the case of the petitioner that as per the aforesaid Control Order, licence for a brick kiln cannot be granted if the said brick kiln is situated within one kilometer of any school. It has been stated that as far as respondent's brick kiln is concerned, the same is situated within one kilometer of the Government School of village Berli Kalan. It is further the case of the petitioner that the said brick kiln is causing nuisance to the children of the school besides causing air pollution which could make the life of the villagers miserable. It is further the case of the petitioner that in this regard the petitioner has served legal notice dated 02.03.2015 (Annexure P5) upon Deputy Commissioner, Rewari, but till date no action has been taken thereon.

After hearing the learned counsel for the petitioner and without issuing notice to the other side as it will unnecessary delay the matter, we dispose of this petition with a direction to the Deputy Commissioner, Rewari to consider and decide the aforesaid legal notice dated 02.03.2015 (Annexure P5) expeditiously, by passing a speaking order.
