--Petitioners

Versus

Chief Administrator & others

--Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE S.J. VAZIFDAR.
HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.

Present:- Mr. Rajbir Sehrawat, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Amar Vivek, Advocate for respondents.

S.J. VAZIFDAR, A.C.J. (Oral)

The petitioners claim to be entitled to be allotted plots on account of their having been displaced upon the de-notification of the Old Sabzi Mandi. The petitioners' appeals have been dismissed. Their applications for revisions are pending. In the meantime the official respondents intend auctioning 148 plots. If, the petitioners are found to be eligible, they would be entitled to be allotted the plots in preference to the General Category.

2. Learned counsel appearing for the respondents states that 32 plots will be reserved and the same shall be allotted to the petitioners who succeed in the revision applications.

3. The petitioners' grievances, therefore, stand redressed, at this stage. Needless to add that if the petitioners' revisions fail, they will be at liberty to adopt appropriate remedies to challenge the same.

4. In the circumstances, the respondents shall be entitled to auction all the plots in except of 32 plots, which have been agreed to be reserved. The statements made on behalf of the respondents are accepted. The petition, accordingly, is disposed of.
