Challenge in the present writ petition is to an order dated 02.11.2013 (Annexure P-1), whereby, the allotment of plot in question has been cancelled and 10% of the total price of the plot, interest, penal interest etc. was ordered to forfeited and the remaining amount was ordered to be refunded to the petitioner.

One of the objections raised on behalf of the respondents is that the petitioner has not availed the statutory remedy of appeal and revision, as provided under Punjab Regional Town Planning and Development Act, 1995.[for short 'the Act of 1995'].

In view of the above, learned counsel for the petitioner wishes to withdraw the present writ petition with liberty to avail alternative remedy provided under the statute.

In view thereof, the present writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn.
