CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE DAYA CHAUDHARY

1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

Present: Mr. D.S. Dalee, Advocate for the petitioners.

DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (Oral)

The present petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents to rectify the pensionary benefits given to them under CPF Scheme commenced w.e.f. 15.11.1995 whereby some specific amount was deducted from the employee's share which was to be transferred to CPF Fund. A further prayer has also been made for issuance of direction to the respondents to decide the claim of the petitioners.

Admittedly, the petitioners have approached this Court without moving any representation to the concerned authority as no representation has been placed on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners would be satisfied in case, the directions are issued to the respondents to consider the claim of the petitioners on the basis of averments made in the present petition.

Keeping in view the limited prayer of the petitioner and without commenting anything on the merits of the case, the present petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2 to consider the claim of the petitioners as per averments made in the writ petition and take necessary action in accordance with law. The writ petition be considered as representation. The necessary exercise be done within a period of two months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

The respondents are directed to pass a detailed speaking order and in case, the petitioners are found entitled for the relief claimed in the present petition and the same be granted within a period of two months thereafter.

In case, the petitioners are still aggrieved in any manner, they are at liberty to challenge the action of the respondents.
