Feeling aggrieved against the alleged inaction on the part of respondent authorities, petitioner has approached this Court by way of instant writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, seeking a writ in the nature of mandamus.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that application of the petitioner (Annexure P-12) duly received in the office of respondent No.1 vide receipt No. 12248 dated 30.5.2014 is still pending decision. He further submits that the petitioner will be satisfied in case respondent No.1 is directed to consider and decide his application, within a reasonable time.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and without expressing any opinion on the merits of case, including the issue of limitation, if any, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, State Information Commissioner, Punjab-respondent No.1, is directed to look into the matter, consider the grievance of the petitioner raised vide his application dated 30.5.2014 (Annexure P-12) and decide the same at an early date, by passing an appropriate order thereon, strictly in accordance
