Amit Rawal, J (oral).

Learned counsel for the appellant, after taking instructions from his client has assured the Court that his client would pay the subsequent installments without any default.

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that the Bank would not execute the award so long so, there is no default in payment and in case two perpetual defaults are made, liberty may be granted to revive the appeal.

On receipt of the entire money the bank shall issue 'No objection certificate'.

Keeping in view the aforementioned facts, no cause of action survives in the present appeal. Accordingly, the appeal is disposed of with liberty as aforementioned.
