FAO-M-461 of 2014 :

This is an appeal preferred by the wife-Navdeep Kaur, aggrieved by the decree of divorce granted by the trial Court in favour of husband-Sukhdarshan Singh, under section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955.

The matter was sent to the Mediation and Conciliation Centre attached to this Court. Both the parties agreed to part ways on condition that the respondent herein pays a sum of ₹ 10/-lakhs towards permanent alimony in full quit and also towards maintenance for the minor child-Ravnoor Preet Kaur. The appellant/wife also consented to take custody of the child.

In terms of the above compromise arrived at before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre, a sum of ₹ 6 lakhs has already been paid by the respondent to the appellant. Today, a sum of ₹ 4 lakhs being the remaining amount towards permanent alimony and maintenance in the shape of bank draft was tendered by learned counsel for the respondent to learned counsel for the appellant.

In view of the compromise arrived at between the parties before Mediation and Conciliation Centre, learned counsel for the appellant, on instructions, seeks permission to withdraw the appeal.

Permission is granted. Appeal stands dismissed as withdrawn.

CMs No. 8852-53-CII of 2015 and
CMM No. 188 of 2014 :

As the main appeal stands disposed of today in view of the compromise struck between the parties, all the above applications stand dismissed as infructuous.
