CM is allowed as prayed for.

LPA-1169-2015 (O&M)

The appellant challenges, order dated 20.07.2015, passed by the learned Single Judge, whereby certain disparaging comments have been made against the appellant while quashing the order transferring Mr.D.S.Sangwan (respondent No.3).

The appellant is the Principal, Govt. Polytechnic, Jhajjar and respondent No.3 is the HOD, Applied Science, Govt. Polytechnic, Jhajjar. The present litigation, in our prima-facie opinion, is founded upon certain misunderstandings between the appellant and respondent No.3. Counsel for the parties agree that the appeal may be disposed of by holding that any observation made in the impugned order against the appellant shall not be read to the detriment of the appellant but would not prohibit the authority concerned from considering, as and when the occasion so arises, the transfer of respondent No.3, by reference to relevant factors as set out in the policy/instructions that governs the transfer of a Government employee but by disregarding material that has been adversely commented upon in the impugned order.

Disposed of accordingly.

We, however, advise the appellant as well as respondent No.3 to avoid this petty bickering, and instead concentrate on the education of their wards.
