SATISH KUMAR MITTAL, J.(Oral)

Learned counsel for the appellant on instructions states that the petitioner-association does not want to press this appeal against the impugned judgment, with liberty that in case any commission has been denied to any auctioneer where the good was sold through process of auction, it will be open for the auctioneer to apply to the Secretary Market Committee, for payment of commission.

If any such application is declined, or if any such prayer is rejected, it will be open for the aggrieved auctioneer to challenge such order, in accordance with law.

Dismissed as not pressed with the aforesaid liberty.
