

and only after declaration of result did she raise a point that reservation should be provided within the category of wards of Freedom Fighters. The appellant having submitted to the advertisement and applied, cannot make a grievance of the lack of reservation particularly a horizontal reservation within the reservation for freedom fighters category. This apart, it would be appropriate to point out that in case a horizontal reservation is provided within the freedom fighter category, it would lead to the Scheduled Caste (R&O) exceeding their quota of seats on the basis of reservation provided to them.

Consequently, finding no merit, the appeal is dismissed.
