Challenge in this appeal is to the concurrent findings recorded by the Courts below, whereby the suit for rendition of accounts preferred by the respondents-plaintiffs, stands decreed against the appellants-defendants.

From the perusal of the judgments passed by the Courts below, this Court is of the opinion that no substantial question of law arises, which calls for any interference. Further the findings, as has been recorded by the Courts below, are on due and proper appreciation of the evidence led by the parties.

Dismissed.

In view of the dismissal of the appeal itself, all the pending applications stand disposed of.
