IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

RSA No. 3402 of 2013 (O&M)
Date of decision: 16.10.2015

Baljit Singh

... Appellant

versus

Tarlok Singh

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE K. KANNAN

Present: Mr. Brijeshwar Singh Bhalla, Advocate for the appellant.

K.Kannan, J.

The plaintiff filed the suit on the basis of the document of purchase from the defendant. The defendant denied the same and at the trial the document of sale was confronted to the defendant where the defendant's photograph has been affixed as the executant for the sale. He could not deny his own identity brought through the photograph affixed in the sale deed and the Court therefore rejected the defendant's case and accepted the plaintiff's case of claim to title on the basis of purchase. The judgment was affirmed in appeal. The case of the plaintiff is well-grounded on a document which was duly registered and if the defendant's plea of denial of execution could not be accepted, for, evidence given about the identity of the evidence and photograph of the sale deed was available, I find no scope for intervention.

The regular 2nd appeal is dismissed with above observations.
