.. Respondent

Coram: Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajesh Bindal

Present: Mr. Karanjit Singh, Advocate, for the applicant.
Mr. Manoj Sharma, Advocate for
Mr. Ashish Aggarwal, Advocate, for the respondent.

Rajesh Bindal, J.

Prayer in the application is for transfer of the petition for restitution of conjugal rights filed by the respondent-husband at Gurdaspur to Amritsar where the applicant-wife is living with her two years old son.

Learned counsel for the applicant submitted that two other cases, one application filed under Section 125 Cr.P.C. and another complaint under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005 are pending at Amritsar, which are being attended by the respondent.

Learned counsel for the respondent does not have any objection to the prayer of the applicant being granted.

Considering the aforesaid factual matrix, the petition for restitution of conjugal rights filed by the respondent-husband at Gurdaspur is directed to be transferred to Amritsar. The parties are directed to appear before the Civil Judge (Senior Division), Amritsar on 19.5.2015, for further proceedings. The Civil Judge (Senior division), Amritsar may either keep it with him or entrust the same to any other competent Court.

Further the Civil Judge (Senior Division)/ Chief Judicial Magistrate, Amritsar may examine the possibility of assigning different cases to one Court, if that court has the jurisdiction and further the Court(s) concerned should consider the request of the respondent to fix all the cases on same date, if possible.

The application stands disposed of accordingly.
