Learned counsel for the appellants submits that the appeal was filed by the appellants through their general power of attorney Kamal Acharya. It is further his contention that as per his information, the executant of the general power of attorney i.e. appellants have withdrawn their power of attorney vide which authorization was given to said Kamal Acharya to present and pursue this appeal. He further submits that he may be allowed to withdraw the present appeal being not pressed with liberty to file fresh one as per the law.
