CM-9664-C-2015

The application is allowed and Compromise Deed Annexure
A-1 (Mark C-1) is taken on record, subject to all just exceptions.

RSA No.2549 OF 2014

Heard.

Learned counsel for the parties under instructions from the parties, who are present in court, submit that the matter has since been amicably settled as per the Compromise Deed Mark C-1 and under this compromise civil suit filed by respondent-Kamlesh Kumar is to be withdrawn, rendering this regular second appeal as infructuous.

The dispute has arisen about Clause VII of the compromise and with the consent of both the parties the same is deleted from Compromise Deed Mark C-1.

As the parties have amicably settled the dispute, which pertains to the relief of seeking specific performance of the agreement the permission is allowed to the respondent to withdraw his Civil Suit filed by him. The same is dismissed as withdrawn.

Consequently, this regular second appeal has become infructuous and is dismissed as such.

The parties shall remain bound by the terms of Compromise Deed Mark C-1, except Clause VII.
