RA No. 81 C of 2015 in
RSA No. 300 of 2014

Satish Kumar Bali Vs. State of Haryana and others

Present: - Mr. SS Kharb, Advocate, for
for the applicant/appellant.

The appeal was disposed of in the absence of the appellant on 10.9.2015. Although, I had disposed of the case on merit, I understand that it should be treated as dismissed in default. The application has been filed for recall of the order. I directed the counsel to argue the case, for, he was not present in the court on the previous hearing when I had reserved the case and passed the order. I find the counsel is unable to explain any of the reasoning, which I have given in the order. I state the reasons given on 10.9.2015 as an order passed now in the presence of the counsel and it requires no further adjudication.

The application as well as as the appeal is dismissed.
