CM Nos.867-868-C of 2014

For the reasons mentioned in the applications, same are allowed and delay and filing and refiling of the appeal is condoned.

RSA No.379 of 2014

Smt. Vedwati, plaintiff-appellant has come up in regular second appeal against the judgment dated 26.03.2012 passed by the Addl. District Judge, Faridabad, whereby the judgment of the trial Court with regard to grant of appointment to the plaintiff as Class IV employee on compassionate ground has been upheld. However, the judgment and decree of the trial Court has been reversed to the extent that on account of 'no work no pay', the plaintiff-appellant would not be entitled to any arrears of salary, seniority etc.

Learned counsel for the plaintiff-appellant has informed the Court that pursuant to the judgment and decree passed by the lower appellate Court, the plaintiff-appellant has since been given appointment on compassionate ground.

As far as grant of arrears is concerned, the judgment of the lower appellate Court does not require any interference as the appointment on compassionate ground is merely a concession to the family members of the deceased employee. Moreover, no illegality, much less perversity, has been found found in the impugned judgment, warranting interference by this Court.

No substantial question of law arises for consideration.

Dismissed.
