

In the High Court of Punjab and Haryana, at Chandigarh

Transfer Application No. 444 of 2014

Date of Decision: 04.09.2015

Pratibha

... Petitioner(s)

Versus

Puneet Khurana

... Respondent(s)

CORAM: Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Sneh Prashar.

Present: Mr. Sanjay Jain, Advocate for the petitioner(s).

Mr. Rajesh Bansal, Advocate for the respondent.

Sneh Prashar, J.

The matter stands amicably settled before the Medication & Conciliation Centre of this Court. The compromise has been reduced into writing, which has been duly signed by the parties and the mediator.

As per the contents of the compromise and as submitted by learned counsel for the respondent the parties have decided to reside together and have undertaken to withdraw the litigation instituted by them against each other.

In view of the settlement, the instant petition has been rendered infructuous and the same is disposed of as such. However, it is made clear that in case the respondent-husband fails to withdraw the petition instituted by him, the petitioner will be at liberty to get the instant petition revived.
