

T.A. No. 462 of 2014

JUPINDER KAUR

V/S

BIKRAMJIT SINGH

Present: Petitioner-in person with
Mr. C.K.Singla, Advocate

Respondent-in person with
Mr. Jaideep Verma, Advocate

* * * *

The case has been called from the office today by us.

Let the office list it for today inasmuch as the parties (husband and wife) have compromised the matter in FAO No. M-54 of 2012.

This Transfer Application has been made to transfer the case filed by respondent-Bikramjit Singh for custody of minor child, namely, Gursharan Singh pending in the Court of Civil Judge (Sr.
Divn.) Ropar. He has withdrawn that case from the Court of Mrs.S.K.Virk, Civil Judge (Sr. Divn.) Ropar. Appellant-Jupinder Kaur has made a statement in FAO No. M-54 of 2012 that in view of the fact that the application for the custody of the minor child Gursharan Singh Dhaliwal has been withdrawn by respondent-Bikramjit Singh vide order dated 22.1.2015, this transfer application has become infructuous and the same may be dismissed as such. Photo-copy of the statement of Jupinder Kaur in FAO No. M-54 of 2012 is placed on record of this transfer application.

In view of the above, this transfer application has become infructuous and the same is disposed of as such.

Copy of the order be given to learned counsel/parties and file be returned to the High Court.
