for the petitioner.

None for the respondent.

K.Kannan, J. (Oral)

1. There is no representation for the respondent when the matter is called.

2. The petition for transfer of matrimonial proceedings is at the instance of the wife pending in the court at Ludhiana at the instance of the husband. The ground for transfer is that she has already filed a petition for maintenance before the court at Patiala and there is also a criminal complaint for offences under Sections 406, 498-A, 377 IPC. Since the petitioner's case is un-refuted, I allow the transfer application and direct the withdrawal of the matrimonial proceedings pending before the court at Ludhiana and be tried before the court at Patiala.
