Crl.M.A.266/2015 (Exemption)

Allowed subject to all just exceptions.

CRL.M.C. 46/2015

Quashing of FIR No.275/2012, under Section 498-A of IPC registered at police station Burari, Delhi is sought on the basis of Mediated Settlement of 7th January, 2013 arrived at Delhi Mediation Centre, Tis Hazari Courts, Delhi (Annexure P-C).

Notice.

Ms. Nishi Jain, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for respondent-State accepts notice and submits that respondent No.2, present in the Court, is complainant/first-informant of the FIR in question and she has been identified to be so by SI Jitender Rana on the basis of identity proof produced by her.

Learned Additional Public Prosecutor for State submits on instructions that the trial of this FIR case has not yet begun.

Respondent No.2, present in the Court, submits that the dispute between the parties has been amicably resolved vide aforesaid Mediated Settlement and terms thereof have been fully acted upon as she has already received ₹4.5 lac out of the settled amount of ₹6.5 lac and today, she has received the balance settled amount of ₹2 lac by way of demand draft bearing No. 361014 of 10th December, 2014 and that divorce by mutual consent has been already granted by the Family Court, Faridabad on 13th September, 2013 (Annexure-D). Respondent No.2 affirms the contents of aforesaid Mediated Settlement and of her affidavit of 8th December, 2014 supporting this petition and submits that now no dispute with petitioner survives and so, the proceedings arising out of the FIR in question be brought to an end.

In 'Gian Singh Vs State of Punjab' (2012) 10 SCC 303, Apex Court has recognized the need of amicable resolution of disputes in cases like the instant one, by observing as under:-

“Resolution of a dispute by way of a compromise between two warring groups, therefore, should attract the immediate and prompt attention of a court which should endeavour to give full effect to the same unless such compromise is abhorrent to lawful composition of the society or would promote savagery.

Where the High Court quashes a criminal proceeding having regard to the fact that the dispute between the offender and the victim has been settled although the offences are not compoundable, it does so as in its opinion, continuation of criminal proceedings will be an exercise in futility and justice in the case demands that the dispute between the parties is put to an end and peace is restored; securing the ends of justice being the ultimate guiding factor.”

Since the subject matter of this FIR is essentially matrimonial, which now stands mutually and amicably settled between parties, therefore, continuance of proceedings arising out of the FIR in question would be an exercise in futility.

Accordingly, this petition is allowed and FIR No.275/2012, under Section 498-A of IPC registered at police station Burari, Delhi and the proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed qua petitioner.

This petition is accordingly disposed of.
