CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ASHUTOSH KUMAR

ORDER

%

24.11.2015

The present case has been lying at the filing counter for a long time under objections for removal of defects.

A note has been put up by the Registry that under the Provisions of Chapter 1, Part-A(a) 5(2) of the High Court Rules and Orders, if a memorandum of appeal is not taken back for amendment, the same shall be registered and listed before the Court for its dismissal for non-Prosecution.

The aforesaid provision applies to all matters: civil and criminal.

Since no effort has been made to collect the memorandum of petition for removing the defect and re-filing the same, the petition is dismissed.

However, the petitioner would be at liberty to file fresh application in case the grievance still remains to be redressed.
